

Georgia Organics – Articulation of Membership Benefits

Eat good food, support the local economy and do something great for Georgia's environment – support the sustainable agriculture and local food movements by joining Georgia Organics today!

All members receive:

- ❖ The Georgia Organics Planting and Harvest Calendar
- ❖ Early, discounted invitations to organic and local food-focused events including our annual conference
- ❖ A snazzy Georgia Organics window cling
- ❖ Organic resources to stay linked into the organic community with a subscription to Georgia Organics quarterly magazine, The Dirt, our monthly electronic newsletter, eDirt, and the Local Food Guide

Farm members at the $45 level additionally receive:

- Complimentary listing in the Georgia Organics Local Food Guide and *Online Local Food Guide
- Discounts on advertising in our quarterly newsletter, The Dirt, and the Georgia Organics Local Food Guide
- Use of the "Member of" Georgia Organics logo on website and in marketing materials
- Personal technical assistance from our Farmer Services Coordinator
- Top-notch educational resources including a complimentary organic farming toolkit (upon request), discounts to technical workshops, access to reports, funding opportunities and more
- Connection to a supportive network of fellow growers, businesses and consumers who want to see you and your farm succeed

Business members at the $250 level and above additionally receive:

- Discounts on advertising in our quarterly newsletter, The Dirt, and the Georgia Organics Local Food Guide

- Complimentary listing in the Georgia Organics Local Food Guide and *Online Local Food Guide
- Use of the "Member of" Georgia Organics logo on website and in marketing materials

Pollinator members at the $500 level additionally receive:

- Invitations to exclusive Georgia Organics donor events
- Personal updates on program successes and project initiatives

Members of the Seeds & Soil Society at the $1,000 level additionally receive:

- Invitations to exclusive Georgia Organics donor events
- Personal updates on program successes and project initiatives
- Complimentary gift membership to the recipient of your choice.

* All Local Food Guide submissions are subject to approval. Only food related businesses are considered for listing in the printed Local Food Guide, however, some other supporting businesses are eligible for listing in the online edition.